RE: NOMINATION LETTER –African NAFCA 2014

Dear Ms. Jama,

Congratulations! You have been nominated for the category for Best Actress in supporting role Diaspora Film for the film Go Fish by The African NAFCA- also known as Nollywood & African Film Critics' Awards located in Beverly Hills California USA. Considering the number of contestant this year, the high quality of those contestants, you should be very proud of this achievement. The African NAFCA- thanks you and your organization for your contributions over the years to the African Cinema. You and the other NAFCA 2014 nominees will have their posters placed on NAFCA official website at <http://www.africanNAFCA.com> The venue for the award ceremony will be at the prestigious and legendary Saban Theatre of Beverly Hills.

We will recognize all award winners at the NAFCA ceremony on Saturday the 13th of September 2014. Red Carpets start at 5:45PM. Some posters including your images will be reproduced and distributed nationally and internationally to promote random awareness of the African NAFCA. For a complete list of all nominees and minute by minute developments please visit the African NAFCA official website at www.AfricanNAFCA.com We need you to confirm immediately that you will be attending and also would need your phone number. Finally we would need you to email a 1 minute video recording to be attached to your online profile picture. We also want you to know each nominee's profile will also be linked to www.nollywoodcritics.com/NMdb.aspx which is the online authoritative source for celebrity and African celebrity content.

Congratulations again, and we hope to see you in Beverly Hills in September. If you feel that what African NAFCA is doing is noble please show your support by helping the African NAFCA to continue to grow by promoting the awards to your fan base.

Sincerely Yours,

Dr. Victor O. Olatoye
