RE: NOMINATION LETTER –African NAFCA 2014

Dear Ms. Al-Nahas

Congratulations! Your Film Go Fish has been nominated for the BEST FILM DIASPORA category by Nollywood & African Film Critics' Awards (African NAFCA 2014) of Beverly Hills USA. Considering the number of contestant this year, the high quality of those contestants, you should be very proud of this achievement. The African NAFCA-thanks you for your contributions over the years to the African Cinema. You and the other NAFCA 2014 nominees will have their posters placed on NAFCA official website at <http://www.africanNAFCA.com>

The venue for the award ceremony will be at the legendary Saban Theatre of Beverly Hills.

We will recognize all award winners at the NAFCA ceremony on Saturday the 13th of September 2014. Red Carpets start at 5:45PM. Some posters including your images will be reproduced and distributed nationally and internationally to promote random awareness. For a complete list of all nominees and minute by minute developments please visit NAFCA official website at www.AfricanNAFCA.com We need you to confirm immediately if you will be attending to receive your award in person and also would need your phone number. Finally we would need you to email a 1 minute audio recording to be attached to your online profile picture. We also want you to know each nominee's profile will also be linked to www.nollywoodcritics.com/NMdb.aspx which is the online authoritative source for African celebrity content.

Congratulations again, and we hope to see you on the 13th of September at Saban Theatre in Beverly Hills. Please help the African Oscar to continue to grow by promoting the awards to your Fan base.

Sincerely Yours,

Dr. Victor O. Olatoye
